MATRIX PRODUCTIONS BOOKS

Journey of Joy Children's Book Series

The series delves into issues of self-esteem, integrity and authentic happiness in a fun and experiential way through the eyes of a seven-year-old girl named Joy as she meets new and unexpected friends along her path to choosing a more joyful life.

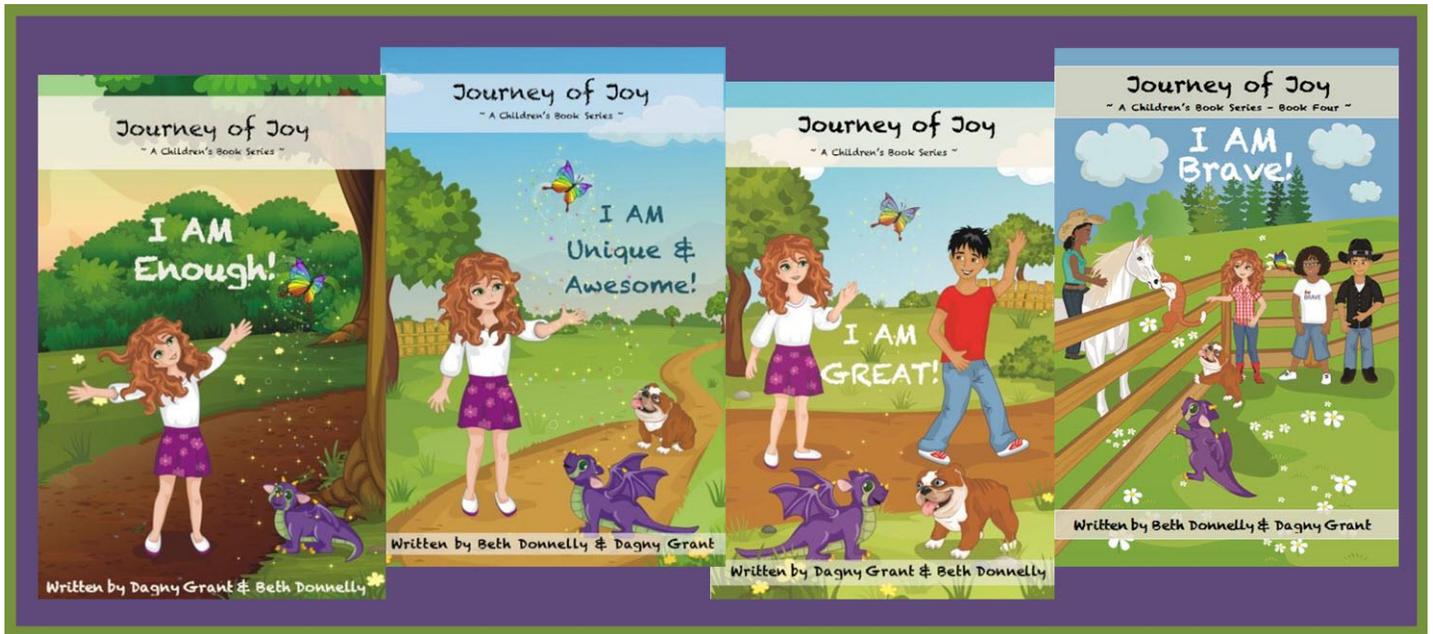

These characters include a childlike and funny baby dragon named Fred, a beautiful butterfly named Glitter who shares the life wisdom of unlimited possibilities, and positive I AM statements.

Joining the group in book two is a sweet and inquisitive English Bulldog Stanley who has been bullied and led to believe that he is ugly. In book three we meet Johnny, a talented young boy, new to the neighborhood who is trying to make a tough decision.

Book four introduces Joy's mischievous cat Rosie, her empathetic friend from school Zina. We also meet Zina's cousin Josh and Spirit, the horse, during a fun visit to the Happy Creek Horse Rescue Ranch.

In this book, these kids learn how to trust their feelings and not be afraid to make choices that may be different from the crowd. Zina also shares the importance of respecting all animals and their feelings too. Josh is an inspiring example of how to be of service to others while being kind and brave.

The characters and stories in this book series will delight the kids in your life with tales of unexpected challenges and new ways to think, react and live more joyfully.

Why Are These Books Important?

We invite anyone who has children in their lives to imagine how much happier teenagers would be if they learned self-esteem, empathy and empowerment as children. Does your audience have children, grandkids, nieces/nephews or students in their life who might benefit from learning more about:

- A healthier self-image
- Empathy toward others
- Joy as a choice
- Finding their "happy place"
- Playfulness and being present in the moment
- Choosing how they feel and react
- How to listen for the answer in their heart
- Why some people are sad and mean
- How to handle disappointment
- How life is like a mirror
- Why being of service to others is a gift to ourselves
- How to be kind and brave while not following the crowd
- The importance of respect for animals and their feelings

Four magical 'Journey of Joy' stories of wisdom and whimsy, teaching KIDS
self-esteem and empathy NOW in
ONE BEAUTIFULLY ILLUSTRATED VOLUME!

This book contains all 4 stories:
I AM Enough! ~ I AM Unique & Awesome!
I AM Great! ~ I AM Brave!

What People Are Saying...

It's inspiring to find a children's book series that gets to the heart of why we're here and to enjoy life's journey. It is truly compelling. It reinforces your child's strong sense of self, the essence of what every parent wants for their precious child. I highly recommend. ~Shawne Duperon, 6 Time EMMY award winner, Project Forgive, Founder and 2016 Nobel Peace Prize Nominee

"Once again Beth Donnelly and Dagny Grant convey messages of wisdom and whimsy that every parent wants their children to have. I AM Brave enchants young minds and hearts in a precious story of friendships and animal connections—instilling kindness and confidence in knowing oneself as a reflection of the divine spirit in all. I can imagine moms and dads absolutely delighting in the kinds of conversations and curiosity this book will ignite between them and their kids. It's truly a joy to read."

~ Dianne Collins, Creator of QuantumThink® and award-winning, bestselling author of Do You QuantumThink? New Thinking That Will Rock Your World

"I am thrilled over the Journey of Joy Series...especially the 4th edition of the series 'I Am Brave!'. Authors and creators Dagny Grant & Beth Donnelly have done it again! This story gives kids the true meaning of bravery with several scenarios shared between this delightful group of unlikely friends. A perfect role model for the character of Josh in this new book is Joshua Williams, founder of non-profit Joshua's Heart Foundation. We are honored that our show Kids 4 Love Project Radio could bring Joshua, Beth and Dagny together for this most beautiful heart felt representation of kindness, bravery and love. AMAZING!!" ~Deborah Beauvais, Owner Dreamvisions 7 Radio Network, Kids 4 Love Project & Radio Show

"As a parent of a teenage boy, one can never say enough about bullying and sharing with children the uniqueness of who they are. I love that these topics and stories of uniqueness and love are threaded through the whole series. The characters are believable and loveable. Another must read for children of any age!". ~Daniel Gutierrez, Best Selling Author, Global Speaker and Teacher, Master Business/Life Coach

"Without a doubt this is one of the best children's stories I've ever read. The authors have a unique way of weaving a story with believable characters that all children would love. The book is beautifully illustrated and written in a way that is simple enough for young children yet complex enough for readers of all ages..."

~ Elizabeth H. O'Reilly, Lightworker

I loved reading them! They send out a very positive message to kids in a very adorable manner and I'm certain that this is the kind of series that leaves an impact on any kid's life and molds their character. I'm sure kids would love this series thoroughly. ~Barbara Carey, Author, Editor

"We have the choice to feel good or not." Wow another wonderful book. What fun to be learning from Joy and all her friends. Everyone at one time or another has felt left out when they were in a new environment and this book teaches children that even if they are in a new environment and feel lost they can still feel GREAT!! I can't say enough about this series and encourage everyone young and old to read about Joy and all her friends!". ~ Daniel Gutierrez, Best Selling Author, Global Speaker and Teacher, Master Business/Life Coach

"In this story, Joy and her friends discover the lesson of self-worth/self-esteem -- what it means to feel awesome about themselves and genuinely blessed by their own individuality and uniqueness -- a wonderful lesson for all children. I highly recommend this series for children of all ages!"

~ Elizabeth H. O'Reilly, Lightworker

"In a world where our children are bombarded with constant negativity "I AM Enough" is a great book to help children see that they can be whatever they choose to be and how they can count on each other no matter their differences. It is a must read for every child and I am looking forward next one." ~Daniel Gutierrez, Best Selling Author, Global Speaker and Teacher, Master Business/Life Coach

Talking Points

- How did you two decide to join together to write this book series?
- What was your motivation for writing these books and why now?
- Tell us a little bit about your radio show.
- How did you decide on your main character, Joy?
- Tell us about Fred and Stanley.
- Is there a little boy in your cast of characters?
- How did the character Glitter assist you in the explanation of these concepts?
- How are your characters developed? Do they each have a unique purpose to the story line?
- Your book titles are all about I AMs. What is the general premise of that, and how does that exploration guide the reader to tell a new story?
- Was it challenging to tell transformational stories in a language that small children can understand?
- How do the characters all help each other through acts of service, kindness and empathy?
- What challenges do you think that children have that these books speak to?
- What other projects are you both working on right now through Matrix Productions?
- Final thoughts?

Portland -- Co-authors and radio personalities Beth Donnelly and Dagny Grant are pleased to announce the December, 2014 international release of the first three in their children's book series "Journey of Joy," published by Matrix Productions.

The highly-anticipated series, whose initial volumes include "I AM Enough!", "I AM Unique & Awesome!" and "I AM Great!" deal with issues of self-esteem, integrity and authentic happiness in a fun, engaging way through the eyes and experiences of a 7-year-old girl named Joy and the unexpected friends she meets on her journey.

Donnelly and Grant are co-hosts of the unique weekly blog talk radio show "I AM U Radio, which airs every Sunday night at 7 p.m. PT. The two cover a variety of self-improvement topics, from general personal development to wide awake transformation and enlightenment. Their show is produced by the I AM Group University.
